Irritation or Illness

Irritation or Illness

There are many water borne illnesses in the world. The EPA and SCDHEC have promulgated laws and regulations to ensure the safety of drinking water. BJWSA follows all those regulations. You can check the Water Quality Report to see how well we are meeting regulations.

BJWSA takes public health seriously. If you have a question about whether your water has caused an irritation or illness, please call us at 843-987-9200.
